Wizard Learning launches audiovisual J06 study aid

Wizard Learning has launched an online course to help advisers study for the Chartered Insurance Institute (CII) J06 Diploma in investment principles, markets and environment examination.

The online course covers the entire J06 syllabus with Wizard's newly developed online audio and animation presentations helping students focus on some of the essential requirements and knowledge needed to pass the examination. With only around 40% of exam entrants currently passing the exam Wizard Learning firmly believes that its online course with unique audiovisual presentations will prove an invaluable learning aid for advisers.

The course is available for £40 including VAT for six months online access or is available with a 30% discount as part of a multi-product discount package. Interested parties should contact Wizard Learning at www.wizardlearning.com for further details.

Wizard Learning currently provides over 40 online learning solutions for a raft of recognised industry qualifications as well as online training on key skills.

Mike Goldsmith, managing director at Wizard Learning, commented:

"Our practice examination packages and subject knowledge questions have already proved to be an excellent way of ensuring that preparation is tightly focused on the revision areas that are needed the most. However we believe the introduction of our online course including unique audiovisual presentations will help students grasp these requirements even further.

"The course was developed as a direct result of feedback received which illustrates the difficulty being experienced by students in this particular topic area and we are delighted to offer a course which will prove truly beneficial to those needing that extra help."
